OPEN LETTER TO ALBANY

The Albany Board of Education, after many months of deliberation hearings and searching thought, has called for another Bond Election entitled "Measure B" by the County Clerk and to be consolidated with the General Election on November 3, 1964. The amount involved is $875,000.

We felt that the public should have the facts as they are.

First, the need is urgent. We have students attending school in inadequate, temporary, makeshift buildings which replace four sub-standard structures that do not meet the requirements of the "Earthquake Law." These were closed by the Board over a year ago when they were declared unsafe for use by the Division of Architecture, Department of Public Works, State of California under date of Aug. 28, 1963.

While the Bond Issue as now proposed has been cut some $120,000 below those previously offered, the basic integrity of the orignal plan is preserved. In brief, "Measure B" would provide for two replacement buildings just north of the main building.

One building would house Wood, Auto and Metal Shops, together with Mechanical Drawing.

A second building would house cooking, sewing, vocal and instrumental music, art, and a multi-purpose lecture hall.

"Measure B" would also provide funds for fire and panic safety corrective work in the main building, certain heating improvements and remodeling of the science area to take advantage of matching Federal funds. Nothing further is planned for the main muilding.

The cost to the average homeowner in Albany would be about 58 cents per months, less than two pennies per day.

In recent weeks nine of our surrounding Bay Area communities have passed school building bond proposals ranging from a few hundred thousand dollars to several million. If we are to give our students an equal opportunity, can we do any less than provide an adequate tool in the form of an up-to-date plant to meet modern educational requirements.

We leave it to your conscience, your community pride and sense of fair play. We are confident that you will come to the right conclusion.

CHARLES A. PINKHAM, President, and Members, Board of Education,
Albany Unified School District

WIN $1,000

Chamber of Commerce Plans Christmas Promotion Soon

Shop at home, win $1,000 and other prizes, and help finance Albany's Christmas street decorations.

That's the latest project of the retail merchants' division of Albany Chamber of Commerce, Chairman John Pleich has announced.

Beginning Wednesday, Oct. 14, participating Albany merchants and professional people will distribute one ticket for each $1 spent at their places of business, for new purchases or paying bills.

Holder of the winning ticket, to be announced Dec. 9, will receive two checking accounts in the amount of $500 each . . . one at Mechanics Bank and the other at Bank of America. By opening credit accounts at participating stores, the winner may spend the $1,000 as he wishes, providing it is in Albany, with merchants who distributed the tickets.

The other prize, arranged through Nevada Fun Tours, is an expense-paid weekend for two in Reno.

All business and professional people are urged to contact the Chamber of Commerce and join this "Shop-at-Home" promotion. The tickets they purchase will finance the cost of the decorations. For complete details, call LA 5-1771.

Last year the cost of the decorations was borne by 204 merchants and seven service clubs. This project is an attempt by the Chamber to broaden the base of giving and to stimulate business as well, Pleich said.

RETIRING Y SECRETARY, ELMER COBLE, HONORED AT DINNER TUESDAY

It was "Elmer, We Love You" night for retiring Albany YMCA Executive Secretary last Tuesday at the Mira Vista Country Club.

Scores of civic leaders and friends turned out to pay their respects to the friendly, energetic little man who has won a lasting place in the hearts of Albany people for his dedicated work with the boys and girls of the community for the past 22 years.

An estimated 250 people honored Coble and his wife, Thelma, with a standing ovation as the Cobles were escorted to their places at the head table by Harold and May Ellis Olson.

Highlights of the brief program, climaxed by the presentation of a king-size check for $1,000 from the citizens of Albany by General Chairman William G. Woolworth, were:

A beautiful address by May Ellis Olson, first recipient of the Distinguished Service Award, as she presented the third such award from the Inter-Service Club Council to Coble (second winner was Woolworth);

Presentation of a resolution of commendation by Albany City Council by Mayor George Hein; presentation of a book of testimonial letters, George Truitt, president of the Berkeley area YMCA;

Presentation of an engraved Omega wristwatch (arranged by Call Brothers Jewelers) by Master of Ceremonies Hal Denham;

"Musical Life History of Elmer Coble," narrated by Richard Schaefer of the Albany Y, accompanied by Raymond Miller and William Lintott; presentation of a guest book signed by everyone at the dinner, circulated by Coble's former secretary, Mrs. Vilma Brown;

Heart-warming telegram from the couple's daughter in Arkansas, Shirley Coble Owen, who was unable to attend; introduction of another daughter and her family, Mrs. Carl Larson of Contra Costa county;

Spectacular floral decorations at the head table, including a "Y" of flowers, the work and donation of Jack Capeluto of American Florist; souvenir programs, provided by Henry's Printing and Joe Villa; a delicious, piping hot chicken dinner, efficiently served in crowded quarters; invocation and benediction by the Rev. James Comfort Smith.

Elmer Coble thanked his friends as the evening ended. He said he could not divulge what he would be doing after Oct. 1,

Note of Thanks

To the citizens of Albany and friends in neighboring communities;

A "million thanks" for the wonderful event of last evening. The Distinguished Service Club Council, the resolution by the City Council, the volume of letters and wonderful gifts were most overwhelming.

The whole affair was one of the most memorable of my life.

Again our sincere thanks and appreciation.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS thousands of Americans lose their lives each year from fires that could be prevented; and

WHEREAS great social and economic losses to our city result from the destruction of homes, business enterprises, industries and natural resources:

THEREFORE I, George Hein, Mayor of the City of Albany do hereby proclaim the week beginning October4, 1964, as Fire Prevention Week.

I call upon all departments and agencies of the city government to participate actively in a campaign for improved fire safety. The fire department and the schools of our city can provide effective leadership in the activities of Fire Prevention Week, and I urge them to work with the Chamber of Commerce and other organizations for a successful program.

I earnestly request every citizen of the community to take part in relieving hazardous conditions and making our city a safer community in which to live and work.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Albany to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Albany, this 28th day of September, nineteen hundred and sixty-four.

GEORGE C. HEIN
Mayor, City of Albany

UN Proclamation Request Prompts Council Split

Most requests for proclamations are almost automatically approved by Albany City Council. The one exception for the past three years has been the request for the mayor to proclaim United Nations Day Oct. 24.

When the request for the proclamation was read Monday night from Harold W. Olson, vice president of the Berkeley-Albany Chapter of United Nations Association, Councilman Lewis Howell moved to authorize the proclamation, seconded by Councilman Richard Clark.

Councilman Joe Egenberger, on the question, moved for the passage of a substitute proclamation on the basis that the submitted proclamaion "gives blanket approval that all actions of the UN are good, when all actions are not in the category of good things." The substitute motion was seconded by Councilman Joel W. Parker, Jr.

When questioned by Clark as to the intent of the change, Egenberger explained that "this proclamation has great meaning to the people of Albany and to the world. We should try to be accurate. To pass the proclamation as submitted gives fullsome praise to the organization. . . . The UN has had a long and hard trial period . . . mistakes have been made . . . some nations have not adhered to the original intent and purpose of the organization. . . . Some member nations have labored unselfishly, but not all."

Mayor George Hein interupted to ask, "Do you realize this proclamation was signed by the President of the United States?"

Councilman Clark said the proclamation as submitted was carefully drawn and "I think it is a reasonable proclamation. I don't think you should condemn the entire UN because of one or two members."

Councilman Parker defended the amendment, adding, "The UN is not particularly an instrument of benefit to this country."

Egenberger added, "Everything about the UN is not perfect, but there is great hope for it. . . . If we change the wording, it means we didn't automatically pass the proclamation. This (substitute) is a more meaningful proclamation."

Councilman Howell said, "This kills the whole idea of observing UN Day . . . good citizens have headed the Berkeley-Albany chapter. This happened last year. I

"Unsinkable Molly Brown" Set For Bond Benefit Tuesday

Through the cooperation of William Garren, owner of Albany Theatre, a special Albany School Bond benefit performance of "The Unsinkable Molly Brown," starring Debbie Reynolds, will be held next Tuesday night, Oct. 13.

Special tickets, $1 for any seat in thehouse, will be sold by all members of the Bond Booster organization and high school students and will be available at the theatre. The performance begins at 8:30 p.m., includes a second movie, "Rhino," and free refreshments.

Ray Cirimeli, finance chairman for the boosters of Measure B in the Nov. 3 election, has expressed the appreciation of the entire organization to Garren.

"This offer is the most thrilling thing which has happened to us to date," Cirimeli said.

Debbie Reynolds set a new one-day filming record with seven complete costume and hairdress changes for the elaborate Paris montage sequence in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film version of the Broadway musical hit. Before the picture was completed, Debbie had worn 22 costumes designed by Morton Haack.

Ranging from men's britches and long underwear to exquisite Parisian gowns, the costumes trace Molly's rise from humble beginnings to Leadville, Colorado, to the period after she and her husband strike it rich and Molly becomes the toast of European royalty.

Meredith Wilson, who wrote "Music Man," is the author of the popular play, which was produced on Broadway by the Theatre Guild.

A request for variance permit by John Cunningham at 700 Calhoun, previously approved by Planning and Zoning commission, was granted.

Council authorized City Attorney Larry Saler to represent the city (at his own expense) at a League of California Cities tribute to Mexico in Mexico City the week of Oct. 14. It also authorized the expenditure of $6 for a wreath from the City of Albany to be placed at a monument in Mexico City.

Council approved Director of Public Works James B. Turner's bill for about $1,280 for weed abatement, progress payments to Murphy-Pacific of $67,111.81 and $13,197.75 on the Buchanan Street Marin extension and to DeLeuw Cather, $1,079.88 and $1,599 on the same project.

Bids for three 1965 police cars were opened, read and referred to Police Chief Jensen for recommendation. Apparent low bidder was H. L. Other bids were East Bay Chevrolet, $7,459.42 for the new cars including state tax, less $1,500 trade-in with a net cost of $5,959.42; Jim Woulfe Ford, $7,340.13 for the new cars, $1,500 trade-in, tax of $293.61 and a net of $6,133.74.

Under Good of the City, Councilman Howell reminded residents to display their Flags Monday, Columbus Day, and announced there will be no Council meeting next Monday because of a League of California Cities meeting.

Ralph Buckwalter said, "I don't know why you have to pass a proclamation simply because a bunch of nitwits wrote it up. . . . I agree wholeheartedly with Councilman Egenberger."

Howell moved to adjourn, seconded by Parker. Clark wished to speak, so motion and second were withdrawn. Clark chided Buckwalter for considering such people as Harold Olson and the President "idots." He offered to discuss the UN situation with him in private. Egenberger said the Council had acted in good conscience. Parker moved for adjournment. It was 9 p.m.

Ray Cirimeli, Mrs. Robert Profet Head Re-election Campaigns

Ray Cirimeli has been named chairman of the Albany re-election campaign of Congressman Jeffery Cohelan, and Mrs. Robert Profet has been named chairman for Assemblyman W. Byron Rumford's re-election campaign in Albany.

Active in community affairs since coming to Albany in 1931, Cirimeli is a former City Councilman and Vice Mayor. He is particularly familiar with Congressman Cohelan's outstanding record as the representative of the 7th Congressional District, having been his friend and associate since they worked together as officers of the Milk Wagon Drivers Union several years ago.

Cirimeli is a member of the Albany Eagles and the Masonic Lodge, the Oakland Scottish Rite and the Aahmes Shrine. He resides with his wife, Phyllis, at 808 Solano Ave., Albany.

Mrs. Profet, mother of four, is a member of the Planning and Zoning commission. She has BA degrees in both English and physics from the University of California.

An officer in the Berkeley-Albany Democratic Study and Action Club, Mrs. Profet resides at 968 Cornell Ave. with her husband, Bob, who is a leader in Albany Democratic circles.

Vice Mayor Lewis M. Howell

MEASURE B for Albany schools has my unqualified endorsement. In fact, I made the motion that Albany City Council pass a resolution endorsing the measure. It is the job of our schools to turn out well-balanced people. Ideally they will hear and play music, read widely, love knowledge, be creative in arts, learn to express themselves, take part in sports and enjoy their leisure. Much of what is labeled "frills" is important to becoming a well-rounded human being. Our high school must teach practical skills so youngsters can move into a job after receiving their high school diplomas. Girls must know how to make a good home. They are getting married young today. All of what can be done for our children if Measure B passes is important in producing good citizens of tomorrow. Join me in voting Yes Nov. 3.

Obituary

MARY A. MOISIO

Mrs. Mary A. Moisio, 71, a 50-year resident of Albany, passed away suddenly while gardening at her home, 1125 Stannage Ave., Sept. 24. A native of Piedmonte, Italy, she was a very active member of the Albany Women's Club and Berkeley Lodge No. 1753, Order of the Sons of Italy.

She was the wife of the late Pasquale Moisio, former owner of an Albany grocery store, who passed away in 1947.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Yola L. Wardle of Oakland; two grandsons, Lee E. Wardle of San Leandro and Dan S. Wardle of Castro Valley; three great-grandchildren, and a host of friends in Albany.

Recitation of the Rosary was Monday evening, Sept. 28, at the Ellis-Olson Mortuary, immediately followed by services conducted by Berkeley Lodge, Sons of Italy. A Requiem Mass was celebrated Tuesday morning at St. Ambrose Church, with committal services at St. Joseph's Cemetery in San Pablo.

HELEN M. TIFFANY

Miss Helen M. Tiffany, a former long time resident of Albany, passed away in a local hospital Sept. 24, after a lengthy illness. She was a retired 25 year PBX operator for the Olympic Club of San Francisco. A native of San Francisco, her only survivor is a brother, Francis M. Tiffany of Alamo. She was a member of the Third Order of Saint Francis.

Services were Monday from the Ellis-Olson Mortuary, with a Requiem Mass celebrated at St. Ambrose Church. Burial was held in Holy Cross cemetery, Colma.

NORMAN C. COCK

Norman C. Cock, father of Dr. Thomas C. Cock, a former long-time resident of Albany, passed away in an Oakland hospital Sept. 20. Norman Cock was a resident of San Gabriel, and had been visting his son for one week. He was 62 years of age and a native of Cornwall, England, although he had been a California resident since 1907. Besides his son, Dr. Cock, he is survived by his wife, Ada B. Cock, another son, John William Cock of Duarte, Calif., a brother, Harold T. Cock of Santa Ana, and six grandchildren. He was a member of the Church of Our Savior of San Gabriel, the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, and a 43-year employee of the Southern Pacific Company. Local arrangements were handled by the Ellis-Olson mortuary. Funeral services and burial were held in San Gabriel, California.

GEORGE W. SIMMONS

George W. Simmons, 88, of 1215 Curtis, died Thursday, in a Modesto hospital after a long illness. He was born in Texas in 1876.

Mr. Simmons came to California at an early age and had a ranch at Rough and Ready near Grass Valley in the early 1900s, and was also an engineer in several gold mines in Nevada County. After moving to this area about 1920, he was connected with a printing and lithograph firm in Emeryville until his retirement in 1946.

A Townsend leader in East Bay clubs for many years, and an intimate friend of Dr. Francis E. Townsend, he was a member of the First Christian Church of Berkeley.

His parents were pioneers in Texas, coming there in 1840 from Wheeling, West Virginia. His mother, Martha Webster, and her brother, were sole survivors of an Indian massacre of the "Webster Party" between San Antonio and Austin, when Martha was three years old. She and her brother were kept captive by the Indians until they made their escape six years later. Mr. Simmons used to recall cattle drives in his boyhood days, to Abilene.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. R. G. Waring of Modesto, and Mrs. H. V. Buffett of Guam; son, Ernest Simmons of Sacramento; three granddaughters, Cindy Waring of Modesto, and Carol and Jean Simmons of Sacramento; grandchildren, Harold Simmons, Jr., and Gertrude McGovern, of Oakland. A stepson, Willard Wittner, lives in Redding, and a step-daughter, Mrs. Joseph Freeman, lives in Albany.

Services were in Modesto Saturday. Interment followed at Oakland.

GEORGE A. CHRISTIANSEN

Funeral services were held Sept. 17 at the Ellis-Olson Mortuary for George A. Christiansen, 74, of 915 Talbot St., Albany. Mr. Christiansen passed away suddenly at his home after a brief illness. He was a native of Berkeley and lived most of his life in this area. He had been an employee of the Albany Bowl for over 10 years.

His only survivors include a niece and nephew, Mrs. Bernice M. Anderson of Albany and Lloyd G. Flinker of Oakland. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Monroe S. Teachenor of the Bethleham Lutheran Church, Berkeley.

Navy Comdr. Robert Colvin

ALBANY NAVAL OFFICER IN CHARGE OF HUREVAC

Comdr. Robert Colvin, executive officer of the VS-30 naval training unit at Key West, Florida, and son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Colvin of 705 Carmel, was in charge of removal of 17 twin-engine anti-submarine planes from the path of Hurricane Cleo recently.

The operation, labeled in Navy fashion as "HUREVAC," removed all training and non-essential aircraft from bases in the possible path of the hurricane to safety in Tennessee. Commander Colvin was quoted in the press as saying the operation is economically sound because the removal of planes costs less for the entire squadron than that of a single lost plane.

This was the first HUREVAC this year. The Florida bases average three a year, Commander Colvin said. He said there are five hurricane conditions, the lowest being the most dangerous. At Condition 2, when the hurricane is predicted to strike the installation in 24 hours, the planes must be removed.

Planes essential for defense and air rescue were left at the base and the evacuation in no way reduced the effectiveness of the Navy.

"No one can operate in a hurricane, anyway," he said.

The stubby S-2s flown by the squadron are equipped to track and destroy enemy submarines. They can operate from an 800-foot carrier deck.

Commander Colvin, a graduate of Albany High, received his master's degree from Harvard last June.

EAGLES AUXILIARY

The next regular meeting of the Bayview Eagles Auxiliary 2323 will be held Oct. 12 in the hall. Nominations for the office of conductor will be held, followed by election on Oct. 26. It is a very important office and several are seeking it.

May Ellis Olson

I SUPPORT MEASURE B, Albany school bonds, because I believe it is vitally important for our schools to give our youngsters every opportunity to answer the needs of their time according to their ability. Knowledge is multiplying fantastically, especially in science. Matching federal funds are now waiting for the people of Albany to pass the bond measure, thereby updating the science department. Our young people must grapple with the "knowledge explosion.' It is up to us to provide them with proper facilities in which to work. I hope my friends join me in voting YES on Measure B on Nov. 3.

Thanks For Writing . . .

The planning committee for the Elmer Coble recognition dinner wishes to thank the many citizens of Albany who so generously participated in showing their appreciation to Elmer Coble for his 22 years of community service.

Approximately 250 people who attended the Sept. 29 banquet gave Elmer a standing ovation. The distinquished citizens award, which he received, was richly deserved. The gifts presented were only "partial payment" but deeply appreciated by Elmer.

The planning committee is also appreciative of the fine cooperation and publicity from the Albany Times. Dorothy Larimer was a most cooperative and a valuable member of our committee.

We feel that the people of Albany have given appropriate recognition to truly one of our great citizens.

The planning committee consisted of the following: Harold Denham, Dorothy Larimer, Joe Villa, Sr., Gus Moore, Walter Sears, Rev. James Smith, Harold Olson, Delmar Wisenor, Ted Valli, Ralph Jensen and Dorothy Simmons.

Democrats Stage Political Rally, Party Saturday

Albany citizens will be whooping it up at a rousing Barbary Coast party and old-fashioned political rally, Saturday, Oct. 10, at the Veterans' Memorial building. The party is sponsored by the Albany Democratic Campaign Committee coordinated by City Councilman Dick Clark to support the Johnson-Humphrey ticket in Albany.

Dancers will swing to the live music of Nick Jordan's San Francisco band in a setting familiar to the Forty-niners. Enchanting dance hall girls will mingle with candidates and prominent citizens. An abundance of tasy refreshments will be served throughout the evening.

The party is the culmination of a door-to-door volunteer fund raising drive. Tickets were distributed to campaign donors and are available at the Democratic headquarters, 1228 Solano Ave., or at the door. Tickets go for a $2 donation or $3 a pair.

Mary Culley, general chairman of arrangements for the party, personally invites everyone to join in singing "Hello, Lyndon" with their friends and neighbors beginning at 9 p.m. Saturday night. Working with Mary are: Ruth Tripodi, Karen Profet, Fred Harvey, Dario Meniketti, Al Arnold, Vincent Buck, and many others.

Note of Thanks

This letter is in appreciation for the assistance I received last Saturday (Sept. 26) from the Albany Police Department, Herrick Hospital, Dr. Bosworth, Dr. Fluger, Dr. Seifert, and especially the wonderful neighbors that live on the 1000 block of Masonic.

My boy received a serious brain concussion after hitting a curb and flying over the top of his bicycle. Through the combined efforts of the above mentioned people, Brad received the best care possible and hopefully is on the road to recovery.

Our family wishes to say thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

Sincerely yours,
The Thomas P. Drennan Family, 1015 Masonic Ave.
